way. The writer has strength enough to stand without help. He possesses a vigorous mind—a fertile imagination—much learning, softened and improved by travel—and, above all, a deep and fervent love of nature.—He is therefore a true poet, and the productions of his pen will endure long after the petty jealousies that "divide" the American from the Englishman have ceased to be aught but recollections that move our wonder.—The volume contains a variety of short poems—the longest of which is "Melanie." It tells the sad story of the love a brother cherishes for a sister, ignorant of the barrier which nature has placed between them. It is a melancholy tale, and has, of course, a melancholy ending. The next, "Lord Ivon and his Daughter," is a dramatic sketch—a powerful and beautiful sketch—in which a father relates his history of sin and suffering to his fair and virtuous child. We refer the reader to these fine poems; and, as better suited to our pages, extract one of the shorter pieces, entitled—

CHEMICAL COMPOUND.—JOHN MARSH, No 77
Washington street, (Joy's Building) has just received a fresh supply of this invaluable composition. It should be in the possession of every family, being by far the best article that can be used, for cleansing and polihishing Brass, Copper and Tin Utensils; Silver and Britannia Wares, &c. As no acids, or gritty substances whatever, enter into the composition, it is warranted not to injure the most delicate article. Stable keepers snd others, will find it unrivalled for cleansing brass and plated Harness Trimmings; as it will not stain nor injure Leather. There will not only be a saving of time and labor by the use of this preparation, but also of expense; as well as securing a beautiful and permanent polish.

SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1835.

We have copied upon our First Page a notice of Mr Willis's new poem, and other works, from the London New Monthly Magazine.

The Governor of Alabama has offered a reward of eight hundred dollars for the apprehension of Wm. P. McGrew and Wm. McGrew, two persons who recently murdered, in the most shocking manner, a lad about 16 or 17 years of age, and his brother about 11 or 12. The boys were peaceably at work earning a subsistence for the indigent family to which they belonged, having given no offence or provocation whatever, when they were cruelly shot down, at the same time, in the very wantonness of deliberate and cold blooded murder. In addition to the above sum, three thousand dollars has been subscribed by the citizens of Marengo and Sumter counties, which will doubtless be paid to whoever may apprehend the murderers, as soon as they are lodged in Sumter jail.

Ohio and Michigan .- In the Senate of Ohio, June 11th, Mr Hawkins submitted the following resolution, which was adopted :-

Resolved, That a select committee of three be appointed with instructions to inquire as to the expediency of memorializing Congress in regard to the extension of the States of Ohio and Indiana northward to the territorial line; and also the expediency of soliciting the Legislature of Indiana to unite with that of Ohio in pursuit of this object.

A set of men in Salem, who call themselves friends to temperance, but who in fact have done, and are doing, more injury to the cause than all the Distilleries ever in operation there, have made an attack upon the Confectioners' shops-they are shocked at the horrid immorality of selling seed cakes and sugar candy !!! Such miserable, puerile cant is disgusting beyond description-it is worse than the man in Haverhill, who thought it highly intemperate to eat meat, and proposed the formation of an Anti-meat Society.

The "Tiger," seen in Middleborough woods, turns out to be a Hyena, which escaped from a Caravan in the old Colony a few days since. One witness gives the following account of an interview with his majesty:-

"As I was walking through the woods about sunset, I saw a huge creature, resembling a tiger, slowly moving towards me in the middle of the road, with his head shrugged in between his shoulders, and his eyes looking like balls of fire. After gazing a moment as he continued to approach I instinctively turned upon my heel and ran back. He followed in quicker pace. Discovering no tree near that could be easily climbed, I picked up a stone, and, terrified, screeched most horribly-which I suspect frightened him, for he turned off into the Democracy in Vermont .- We have the most encouraging accounts of the prospects of the Democratic Party in Vermont-the Green Mountain Boys are stirring in the good cause-a grand State Convention has been called at Montpelier, to be held on the 8th day of July for the nomination of State officers.

The South Boston Celebration of the 4th will be a gallant affair-the preparations are on an extensive scale, and every thing promises well. Dr J. V. C. Smith has accepted an invitation to officiate as Orator of the day.

Calumny Refuted .- The Editor of an Eastern pader, "The Milburne Sentinel," in reply to the charge of being a lawyer says that he has been a cobbler, a tanner, a seller of ribbons, calicoes, tea, rum, and tobacco-a pedagogue, and though last, not least, an Edtor, but never a lawyer.

Accident .- One of the hands belonging to the steamboat Thistle was killed Tuesday morning, at N. York, while making some alteration in the wheel house, when the wheel was started and struck him. He died in a short time after.

The Cherokees .- The last accounts from the South state, that the Council lately held by John Ross, at Red Bluff, has determined to reject the very liberal and Provident terms offered to their tribe by the President.

The Advocate says that Mr Lauriat will make another ascension on the 4th of July, accompanied by his daughter. This certainly will prove fair business for

A writer in the Atlas says that he is prepared to believe anything that is idle and ridiculous-we should think from the tone of that Journal that its editors were in the same condition.

The Centinel has solved the "mystery" about the noise in the Baltimore Convent which threw the Advocate into a cold sweat-it was made by an old lady under the influence of the night mare.

The Fusiliers were in Baltimore on Wednesday .-They have been much admired, and the Brass Band is admitted to be a "leetle" the best thing of the kind

The Portland People are wide awake upon the subject of a Rail Road to Quebec. A route is to be immediately surveyed, and an application made to the Legislature for a charter.

Commodore Dallas is appointed to the command of the West India station of the U.S. Navy, and goes out as soon as the examination of the midshipmen at Baltimore shall have closed.

The witness, who styled herself, the Widow Murray, resisted the administration of the oath for some minutes, during which time Dorhin made several attempts to prompt her. The Court became imperative, and she reluctantly yielded an assent to be sworn, but still halted at every step in the ceremony, which was performed with peculiar solemnity. Yankees against the world .- A foot race for five hundred dollars took place on Monday afternoon, at the Hunting Park Course, near Trenton, N. J. We learn that thirteen persons started-all properly equipped for the occasion. All but five gave up the contest shortly after passing the first mile; two others stopped at the end of the second mile; and the other three, STAN-NARD, the Connecticut boy, and BAREFOOT, an Iroquois Indian, and another, continued the three miles. He first removes by maceration and boiling eve ry thing that is soluble in water, then reduces the wood to powder, and after subjecting it to the heat of an oven, grinds it like corn. In the first instance he judged it prudent to administer it to a dog, who seemed tolerably well satisfied with the fare ; thus encouraged, he ventured to attack it himself, and professed to find it quite palateable. Mr Van Buren's reply to the committee of the National Convention, signifying his acceptance of the nomination for President by that body, will be found in our columns to-day. We do not affect to conceal the gratification with which we give it to our readers. It is alike admirable in its tone and avowals; and is worthy of its source and the occasion.

Mr V. B. avails himself, with great pertinency, of the opportunity to place his conduct, in relation to the high office for which he is now presented by the unanimous voice of the democracy of the Union, in its true light before the people. Assailed and misrepresented as he has been on this subject, nothing can be more satisfactory, nay triumphant, than this exposition of his course. Even his political enemies must concede the delicacy and propriety of his conduct, and they cannot detract, if they would, from a reputation, political and ersonal, which has as little to fear from the malice as it has from the hostility of the opposition.

Several of the Opposition journals, we perceive, have promptly copied Mr VAN BUREN's letter into their columns. So far, they do an act of justice. That they find fault with it, in some respects, is perhaps natural, it is certainly not unexpected. One of them, the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, objects to it, because Mr V. B. cites Thos. Jefferson as "the great exemplar of his political faith:" and the editor of that paper, true to his ancient political hatreds, remarks, that "Mr Jefferson's principles, political, moral and religious, were detesta-The editor of the Com. Adv. is among the few modern "whigs" who venture to express (what surely all of the mentertain) unchanged federal sentiments in relation to Mr Jefferson and his democratic opinions. Objections, therefore, to Mr V. B., on that ground, and from such sources, are complimentary alike to the soundness of his principles and the integrity of his political character. At any rate, it is sufficient for the republicans of the Union, that Mr VAN BUREN looks to Mr Jefferson, politically, as his "great exemplar," and that upon that rock his administration will be established .- Albany Argus.

Which is Right ?-Mr Choate, in his Faneuil Hall Speech, pronounced the government of the United States, as now administered, one of the worst that God ever suffered to exist on the earth. Of course, one had better live in Constantinople than in Boston, or be starved in Portugal or Russia, than to thrive in New England. That is the politician's side of the picture.

During the week of the religious anniversaries in this city, the Rev Mr Hague made an eloquent address on missions. He said that last year the appeal to christians for aid was made with reluctance, but now the prosperity of the country was so great that charity ought to abound in proportion, that we might show gratitude to Heaven for making us the happiest, freest and most prosperous people of the whole earth. Such, he said, was the demand for houses in Boston, that it was almost impossible to obtain them to meet the absolute wants of the population, and we even found ourselves so straitened in this respect, as scarcely to be able to find sufficient room to extend to our friends from abroad the rights of hospitality.

What a singular government ours must be-the worst that ever existed, and yet the whole community suffering with a plethora of happiness and prosperity. -Mr Choate must have queer notions of a good government. We should like to hear his definition .- Boston Advocate.

Mr Greene-I request a place in your paper to correct more fully a misstatement which occurred in the Transcript of Thursday evening. I solicit this indulgence in justice to the feelings of the members of the two corps, between which nought but the best of friendly feelings exist. I mean the Charlestown Artillery, of Charlestown, and the Columbian Artillery, of Artillery, of Charlestown, and the Columbian Artillery, of Boston. On Wednesday, 17th June, the Charlestown Artillery, commanded by Lt. Christy, celebrated their anniversary by commanded by Lt. Christy, celebrated their anniversary by parading and visiting Boston and Chelsea. At the Chelsea house they set down to dinner provided by Mr Taft. Their appearance amply proved they continue to deserve the compliment often paid to them, of being as full, hardy, and well disciplined a corps as there is in the State. The Columbian Artillery under the command of Capt Jotham B. Munroe, celebrated their 37th Anniversary by marching to Savine Hill for target duty. They took breakfast at Tuttle's, and dined under their own Marque. The appearance of this corps was fine and strictly soldier-like. They have provided themselves with a stand of Carbines, an article about one third shorter than a common musket, carrying about sixteen to the pound, which they sling across their backs, or carry as Light Infantry, as occasion of-fers.

The appearance of a company thus equipped would be apt The appearance of a company that chapped age to disappoint those who have talked of the useless, expensive parades, and who have exerted themselves to render unpopular a system which ensures protection, in cases of emergency, and which they would be the first to claim.

After striking their tents they marched through Dorchester, and by a polite invitation, stopped at the house of Gen. Davis, on the Neck, and partook of his usual good cheer. They then marched to Bunker's Hill, to fire a salute, which in conjunction, and gun for gun, with the Charlestown Artillery, they did tion, and gun for gun, with the Charlestown Artillery, they did in perfect harmony, as the setting sun was withdrawing his beams and ending a day, but for which the Fourth of July might have been to us any other day than a day of rejoicing. COMMERCIAL EDUCATION.

F. FOSTER, ACCOUNTANT, 116 Washington st continues to give Lessons in WRITING and BOOK-KEEPING, upon the most improved plans.
YOUNG GENTLEMEN are qualified for mercantile situations, in a superior and expeditious manner—their attention being exclusively directed to practical futility.

CURRENT HAND WRITING.

CURRENT HAND WRITING.

Mr Foster's method of instruction is so simple and effective as to eradicate the most irregular scrawl, and to substitute a neat, rapid and beautiful style of writing.

This establishment is intended as a nursery for penmanship on undisputed principles; and as a barrier against the encroachment of depraved taste and assumed talent, so frequently pressed upon the notice of the public.

Hours of instruction from 7 to 12, A.M.; 2 to 5 P.M.; and 7 to 10 o'clock, in the evening.

PATENT FEATHER DRESSING.—The subscriber having the right of Reynolds's Patent Machine for Dressiag old and new Feathers, for the State of Massachusetts, and having put it in operation, he is ready to receive orders from any who may favor him with a call.

The operation of the machine produces the following effect: new feathers are dried of their excessive moisture and purified of their disagreeable and unpleasant odor. The same results are effected on old feathers, and besides they are restored to their original liveliness, even after they have been long compressed together and rendered exceedingly uncomfortable for repose. They are also thoroughly cleaned of all the dirt, perspiration, and pestiferous gasses, which feathers long used to health, and which has never failed to excite the wonder of those who have witnessed the result.

As this is the first machine of the kind ever put in operation in the United States, which has been highly recommended by TABLE RENOVATING PILLS, are now offered, for the benefit of the public, by the Author, under an honest persuasion, that the certificates of their efficacy and effects; and the references and testimony respecting his own reputation and character, will secure for them public confidence. They have been the result of much research and experiment, occasioned by unusual suiterings from Dyspepsia and a diseased liver for 30 years. During a considerable part of this ported, it has been to me an object of anxious solicitade, to discover some preparation of medicine better calculated to reheve me of my suiferings, than any I had herestolore need. And after many experiments in Maieria Medica; and, among the vegetables of our country, I have succeeded in preparing a medicine, parely and outviety vegetable, which does in an eminent degree, answer that important and desirable object. Their effect is to exott and sustain a natural peristalite action in the stomach and in extines, and to produce a discharge from them of all the morbid and bilious matter which they contain; and also to remove biliary obstructions, and promote and sustain in the natural secretions of the liver. Hence they are peculiarly effications in curing all diseases, originating from a disordered state of the stomach and hovels: such as Indigestion, Costivenese, Bilious Cholic, Nervous and Sick Heodache, Hypocondria, Yellow and Black Jaundice, Cholera Morbus, Cutaneous Eruptions, Erysipelas, Heattburn, Sourness of Stomach, and General Debuilty. Their efficacy has been fairly and abundantly tested by my own experience and that of many others. They may, with perfect salety, belaken by both sexes, of all ages, in cases of indisposition; and they are peculiarly effectual in liver complaints to offering them to the public, I pledge my reputation and character, that a perfect trial of their effects will satisfy them of their superior excellence, In regard to my reputation and character, that a perfect trial of their effects will satisfy them of their superior excellence, in regard to my reputation and character, that a perfect trial of their effects will satisfy them of their superior excellence, in regard to my reputation and characte references and testimony respecting his own reputation and character, will secure for them public confidence. VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, is the most valuable remedy how in use for coughs, colds, asthma or phthisic, whooping cough and pulmonary affections of every kind. Its sale is steadily increasing and the proprietors are constatuly receiving the most favorable account of its effects. The following new certificates are offered for public examination.

From Dr Samuel Morrill to the Proprietors of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.

I am satisfied that the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is a valuable medicine. It has been used in this place with complete success in an obstinate complaint of the luags, attended with a severe cough, loss of voice, and the raising of much blood, which had previously resisted many approved prescriptions. After using the Balsam one week, the patient's voice returned, and he was enabled to speak audibly. This case occurred some time since, and the man is now engaged not only in active but laborious business.

Respectfully yours &c., SAMUEL MORRILL, M. D. Concord, N. H. Jan 30, 1832.

Respectfully yours &c, SAMUEL MORRILL, M. D.
Concord, N. H. Jan 30, 1832.

From Mr Samuel Everett.
In October 1830, I was attacked with a cough accompanied with a severe pain in the side and difficulty of breathing. I resorted to several remedies but without effect. In January 1831, I was attended by a skilful physician, and subsequently received the advice of several others—but the disease steadily received the advice of several others—but the disease steadily increased; the cough was incessant, attended with a bloody and offensive expectoration; my flesh was wasted, my feet swollen and my strength extremely reduced. In Aprilmy case seemed utterly hopeless—I was told by my physicians that medicine could be of no further service to me, and it was not expected by any of my friends that I could survive a month. In this situation my daughter procured a bottle of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, (which she had heard highly recommended for similar complaints,) and prevailed on me to make trial of it. Its use was attended with the most unexpected and happy result. It gave me immediate relief and one bottle effected a cure. I have since been free from pain in the side and cough, except in the case of common colds.

Boston, March 1, 1832. SAMUEL EVERETT.
